Tax Compliance Guide

Admissions Tax

(9/2023)

The Aurora Municipal Code imposes an admissions tax upon the amount paid for admission to a place or event open to the public. A non-exhaustive list of places and events for which admission charges or fees imposed upon members of the public are taxable include the following:

- Any showing or performance of a motion picture, stage show, play, concert or other manifestation of the performing arts;
- Any sporting or athletic contest, exhibition or event, whether amateur or professional;
- 3. Any lecture, rally, speech or dissertation;
- Any showing, display or exhibition of any type, such as an art exhibition; or
- Any restaurant, tavern, lounge, bar or club, whether the admission charge is termed a "cover charge," "door charge," or other such term.

Exemptions

The following types of events are exempt from collection of the tax.

- Any admissions fee paid or charged to gain admission into any place owned by a school, or any event sponsored or conducted by a school.
- Any admissions charged to gain admission into any place owned by the City or any event sponsored or conducted by the city.
- Admissions purchased by a government, or an exempt charitable organization in the conduct of their regular charitable functions and activities.

Note: charitable organizations are not exempt from collection and remittance of tax for any events held by the charitable organization.

Examples

- A bar and night club charges $10 per person as a cover charge on weekends. This charge is subject to admissions tax.
- A movie theater charges $8 per ticket for a matinee showing. This charge is subject to admissions tax.

THIS GUIDANCE IS A SUMMARY IN LAYMEN'S TERMS OF THE RELEVANT AURORA TAX LAW FOR THIS TOPIC, INDUSTRY, OR BUSINESS SEGMENT. IT IS PROVIDED FOR THE CONVENIENCE OF TAXPAYERS AND IS NOT BINDING UPON THE CITY. IT IS NOT INTENDED FOR LEGAL PURPOSES TO BE SUBSTITUTED FOR THE FULL TEXT OF THE AURORA MUNICIPAL CODE AND APPLICABLE RULES AND REGULATIONS. THIS GUIDE DOES NOT CONSTITUTE A CITY TAX POLICY.
