Is everything free?

The breakfast is free, but there will be freewill donations being accepted that will benefit the Colorado Freedom Memorial Foundation. There will be merchandise available for purchase from the Colorado Freedom Memorial Foundation and freewill donations accepted.

Are ATM's available on site?

No. We encourage you to bring cash with you.

Where do I park?

Great question! Free parking is available at the Beck Recreation Center (800 Telluride St. Aurora, 80011 • 303.739.6888) as well as some on street parking. There will also be over-flow parking available at several dirt lots in the surrounding area. Parking attendants will be directing you. Please remember to respect the neighborhoods and businesses in the surrounding area by not blocking any fire hydrants, cross walks or private driveways. All code violations will be enforced.

Is handicap parking available?

Yes! We have an ADA-dedicated lot for guests that need close-proximity parking near the Colorado Freedom Memorial. Vehicles must have a visible credential to park in this lot.

Are there restrooms on site?

Yes! For your convenience, we have port-o-lets and hand washing stations available at the event site. Handicap port-o-lets are also available.

Are blankets, chairs, umbrellas, tents and canopies allowed?

Please feel free to bring blankets and portable chairs and find a comfortable space in the grass. Umbrellas are allowed to block rain or produce shade, but please be courteous of those around you. For the enjoyment of all guests, leave your tents and canopies at home.

Are pets allowed?

No. For the safety of your animals, pets must be left at home. Though we all enjoy our furry friends, the loud sounds and congestion may frighten your animal causing them to act out of character. Service animals are allowed and may be asked to provide the necessary credentials.

Where is lost and found?

Any lost or found items will be turned into the Welcome tent.

What if it rains?

Colorado Remembers will occur rain or shine. However, if there is severe weather, event management staff will make an announcement for guests to return to their vehicles or seek shelter. Activities will resume 30 minutes after the storm has safely left the area.
